

NOT CONSIDERED.

UPPER HOUSE DEFERRED ACTION UPON THE MAYOR'S VETO.

WILL MEET AGAIN THIS MORNING

CALLED AT THE REQUEST OF CITY'S WATER WORKS ATTORNEYS.

The North Terrace and Tenth Street Grade Ordinances Passed by the Lower House—Other Matters Considered.

The upper house had been in session but a few moments last night, and had considered only one or two matters, when an alarm arose and moved that the house adjourn. There are so few present that it seems dangerous to do business here," said the chairman. This seemed to be the unanimous opinion of those present, and the house adjourned to meet to-day.

Before the adjournment discovered that it was dangerous thing to attempt legislation without more than seven members present, the house received Mayor Davis' veto of the ordinance granting the Kansas city Gas Light and Coke Company a franchise. This was not considered, however, and both ordinance and veto were laid over until the next morning. The house also considered and passed ordinances extending the curbing on each side of Troost avenue between Twenty-third and Thirty-first streets from 14 feet to 16 feet, and providing for the paving of Troost avenue from Twenty-eighth to Thirty-first street with asphalt.

In the Lower House.

The few spectators who went to the city hall last night, coming to the session of the ordinance that has been vetoed by the lower house of late, went home in the early morning. The session was a very quiet one, with few spectators and few speeches were made, as on previous occasions.

The ordinance authorizing the city to begin construction of a sewer line to establish the park to be known as "North Terrace," was passed. Councilman Rogers cast the only negative vote. A similar measure, authorizing the city to make a condemnation proceeding, was sent to the committee on parks.

The board of public works, at its session of last night, recommended that the city should be authorized to acquire the right of way on the north side of the city, which is of considerable importance to the city.

An ordinance to establish the grade of Tenth street from Grand avenue to Locust, which is of considerable importance to the city, was passed.

The long discussion regarding the improvement of Troost avenue from Twenty-third to Thirty-first streets, which is of considerable importance to the city, was passed.

SPECIAL MEETING TO-DAY.

Called at the Request of the City's Council in the Water Works Case.

A special council meeting has been called for this morning at 10 o'clock. Mayor Davis has been called to the city hall at the request of the attorneys for the city in the water works litigation in order that they might explain to him the nature of the case and the position of the city in the litigation.

From other sources it is learned that another object of the meeting is to allow the council to get upon an ordinance fixing the salaries of the city's water works employees. The matter is now before the council, and the present superintendent will go out of the city directly after the mayor has returned to private life.

The new chief executive is a man of considerable experience and ability, and is expected to be a valuable asset to the city. He is expected to be a man of considerable experience and ability, and is expected to be a valuable asset to the city.

HID THE WATCH.

An Officer Witnesses a Robbery, Pursues and Captures the Thief—Man Robbed Would Not Prosecute.

While John T. Brown, a police officer, was on duty at the corner of Tenth and Locust streets, he witnessed a robbery. He saw a man, who he later learned was named "Doc" Lemon, being robbed by a man named "Doc" Lemon. The officer pursued the thief and captured him. The man who was robbed would not prosecute.

SOME TALK CORN.

A Sample Stalk, Brought in by the City From Saline County by Editor George H. Bransley.

Last evening Mr. George H. Bransley, editor of the Home Market and Stockman, of this city, returned to the city from a trip through the state. He is a great admirer of Missouri and holds to the opinion that the state can raise the greatest crops that grow, and he was anxious while on the trip to find something to prove the faith he possesses.

While in Saline county he paid a visit to the farm of Mr. John K. King, who lives about 10 miles south of Marshall, and looked over a field of corn in which there was a stalk that was 10 feet high. He found that it was a large portion of the stalk that was 10 feet high. He found that it was a large portion of the stalk that was 10 feet high.

DEATH BY HIS OWN HAND.

SHOOTING OF J. W. WALKER IN HIS ROOM IN THE MIDLAND HOTEL.

Drank Four Glasses of Carbolite Acid and Then Fired a Bullet Into His Brain—Was a Prominent Citizen of St. Joseph, Mo.

James W. Walker, one of the most prominent business men of St. Joseph, Mo., and a man well known throughout the state of Missouri, was found dead in his room in the Midland hotel at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. He had drunk four glasses of carbolite acid and then fired a bullet into his brain.

The process of vivifying the pulp is a secret one, the discovery of Walker's death, a young mechanic of Topeka, Mo., is known only to him, but has been placed in secret for the protection of the new company.

Mr. Walker arrived in this city Thursday forenoon from Savannah, O. He had been engaged in paying off the employees of a coal mine at that place owned by him.

When Walker reached the Union depot he telegraphed his wife at St. Joseph that he would reach home that evening. He then went to the hotel and engaged a room on the sixth floor, which he called the Grand avenue suite. He immediately went to his room and was not seen or heard from again until he was found dead.

Walker called the Midland hotel up by telephone and asked for Mr. Walker. He was told that Mr. Walker was not in the hotel. He then went to the hotel and found that Mr. Walker was not in the hotel.

When Mr. Walker was found dead in his room, the police were called. They found that he had drunk four glasses of carbolite acid and then fired a bullet into his brain.
